

Help Support Long Beach Junior Golf Programs

Founded by Beverly Brines in 1992, the Long Beach Junior Golf Association (LBJGA) provides a quality golf experience for Long Beach area youths that stresses golf skills as well as the innumerable positive life skills taught by the game of golf. The program thrives with more than 500 members, and is supported through low cost membership fees and the generous donations of the community.

The Little Linksters program brings first time junior golfers between the ages of 8 and 12 to Heartwell Golf Course every summer, where volunteer instructors teach all aspects of the game. Upon completion of the program, each junior is awarded a set of golf clubs and invited to join the LBJGA.
